

Please join us for the 2016 South Nyack Summer Concert Series

Franklin Street Park, South Nyack

(Franklin Street between Cedar Hill Avenue & Depot Place)

6:30pm – 8:30pm

Featuring this Sunday - June 26 - George Romano – performing the standards and rock ‘n roll favorites spanning the past four decades - he’s like an eclectic jukebox!

Sunday, July 31 - Catahoula Cajun Band plays dance music of Southern Louisiana. With the fiddle, triangle and the accordion, this music became known as “French”, but is truly a fusion of French, American and Country with influences from African rhythms, Creole and blues adding their own spice to the mixture.

Sunday, August 28 - The Old No. 7 Band is a fusion of country, bluegrass and classic rock. Featuring their own version of songs from artists such as Johnny Cash, Grateful Dead, Bruce Springsteen, Adele and Mumford & Sons.

“Bring a chair, blanket, refreshments, friends & family and enjoy the concert in the park!”

Concert dates are weather permitting.

